Singer in Cuba For Conference

HAVANA, Dec. 30 (UPI) Former singer-dancer Josephine Baker arrived here Wednesday to attend the tri-continental conference of solidarity against imperialism, which begins Jan. 3.

On the same plane with Miss Baker was former British Guiana Premier Cheddi Jagan and 13 delegates from Red China. A total of 92 persons arrived aboard the airliner from Prague.

Miss Baker is the widow of French scientist Andres Voisin who died in Havana last year on a lecture tour.
